SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

A twenty-seven year-old Sacramento woman was reported missing by her boyfriend after he found her car parked in the Thunder Valley Casino parking lot.

Christie Wilson, 27, of Sacramento, was last seen by her boyfriend, Daniel Burlando, 30, also of Sacramento, on Tuesday, October 4 at 5 PM when he left to go to his father's house for dinner. Later that evening Wilson left Burlando a phone message stating she was going to Thunder Valley Casino in Lincoln. He was not overly concerned when Wilson did not return on October 5 as she has stayed out all night in the past. By October 6 Wilson had not returned home and Burlando became concerned. Burlando drove to the casino where he located Wilson's car parked in the lot. When Burlando could not find Wilson in the casino he contacted the Sacramento Police Department and reported Wilson as a missing person.

Placer County Sheriff's detectives were contacted by detectives from Sacramento P.D. and advised of this investigation. Both agencies are working together on this case. Wilson's boyfriend and family are concerned because they state Wilson would never leave her car behind.

Wilson is described as a White female, 5'4", 150 pounds with brown hair and eyes. Anyone with information on Wilson's whereabouts is urged to contact Placer County Sheriff's Sergeant Bob McDonald at 530-889-7852 or Sacramento Police Department's Missing Persons Unit at 916-433-0650.
